ACADEMIC YEAR-2023/2024

YUVA SAMVAD PROGRAM REPORT

Central Ministry of Youth Affairs organises an interaction session titled 'Yuva Samvad: India @2047' at selected Universities/Colleges during the year 2023-24. The Yuva Samvad in a single phrase can be defined as- "for the youth, by the youth, of the youth". The Samvad will be an unstructured discussion among youth led by persons of eminence. The dialogue and discussion during the Yuva Samvad India @ 2047 will be based on the theme of Panch Prans (five resolves) as proclaimed by Prime Minister, Narendra Modi, during the Independence Day Speech on August 15, 2022. The Panch Prans are –

1. Goal of Developed India
2. National Unity and Solidarity
3. Remove Trace of Colonial Mindset
4. Sense of Duty among citizens
5. Take pride in our heritage and legacy.

Yuva Samvad initiatives aim to rekindle the spirit of patriotism and values of India's Freedom Struggle by engaging the youth in various events. This will help showcase 'Youth Power' and reinforce the five resolves 'Panch Pran', among the youth of the country

The NSS Unit 1 and 2 of BLDE'A SB ARTS AND KCP SCIENCE COLLEGE College is selected by the Central Ministry of Youth Affairs to organise Yuva Samvad. The "Yuva Samvaad" program, organized by NSS Unit 1 and 2, took place on March 28, 2024, at 11:00 am in the Seminar Hall of our college. The program aimed to create awareness about nationalism and democracy among youth, develop leadership qualities, promote social responsibility, foster creativity and cooperation, and enhance problem-solving abilities.

The inaugural session commenced at 11.00 am. This session started with the NSS Choir singing the NSS anthem. The welcome speech was given by the NSS volunteer Miss. Harshita Mallur. The presidential address was delivered by Dr. R. M. Mirde, Principal of SB Arts & KCP Science College. Then watering the plant ceremony was done by the Chief guest of the day, Suresh B. Gejji, (President of Gejji Career Academy), Dr. R. M. Mirdhe, Principal SB Arts & KCP Science College. Dr. P S Patil, IQAC Coordinator, Prakash Rathod, NSS District Level Officer and Mr. Milan Rathod and Dr. Tarannum Jabeen NSS Coordinators of the college.

This was followed by his inaugural speech and he talked about the Panch Pran/ Five Resolves. He mentioned about the necessity of unity and integrity and the citizen's duty and responsibility in nation building. He further talked about how youth need to be more knowledgeable about the Panch Pran/Five Resolves in order to shape them into great leaders and good citizens and to make them more known about various social economic problems of this country so that we can build a better India. Then Mr. Manoj NSS volunteer was called for the felicitation speech. After that NSS volunteer Mr. Pajwal M. Patil delivered vote of thanks.

Program Outcomes

1. Awareness and Understanding: Participants gained a deeper understanding of nationalism, democracy, and their roles as responsible citizens.
2. Skill Development: Through workshops and discussions, participants developed leadership qualities, enhanced creativity, improved cooperation skills, and learned effective problem-solving techniques.
3. Engagement and Networking: The program facilitated networking among participants from different backgrounds, fostering collaboration and mutual learning.

Recommendations for Future Programs

1. Pre-Event Planning: Start planning and coordination well in advance to address logistical challenges effectively.
2. Session Timing: Allocate specific time slots for each activity/session to ensure effective time management.

Conclusion

The "Yuva Samvaad" program successfully achieved its objectives of creating awareness about nationalism and democracy, developing leadership qualities, promoting social responsibility, fostering creativity and cooperation, and enhancing problem-solving abilities among participants. The diverse participant group and engaging activities contributed to the program's success, highlighting the importance of such initiatives in youth development and empowerment.
