REPORT

The 'Nada Habbha' and 'Halli sobhagu' events were organised on 7/3/2020 by the Women Empowerment Cell.

The students preparing for the Day Event

The entire campus was decorated with our regional theme. The Small cut outs of the achievers of Karnataka with information related to it were displayed throughout the campus.

Students with the costumes of the Village tradition made the entire campus 'Kannadamaya'. The Nada Patriotic songs were performed by the Students. The Halli sobhagu was created in our campus by the students. The replica of the village lifestyle was displayed, right from the hut with the life lead in these huts to the worship of the deity to the playing of the swing, everything was lived by all the Faculty and the Students. Also the ploughing of the fields to the harvest of the crops, everything was represented here on this day.

The Halli Sobaghu recreated in our College

Later in the evening the traditional games which are at an edge of extinction were played by the Faculty and the students as in opponent teams. The games Lagori , Kho Kho ,Huli kuri game, Gilli Danda, Bhugari,Marbles were played . All enjoyed ,the new generation got to know of our traditional games and the Faculty remembered their golden days. The concept of introducing one with our rich culture of India and make one to make a part of one's life was to some extent fulfilled.All the students enthusiastically took part in all the events and the cultured atmosphere made this day a memorable one.

Sanskritika Kalarava

The Women Empowerment Cell organized the Event Sanskritika Kalarava on 8/03/2020. The competition of the representation of the Cultures of the various States of India was held for all the Students of U.G. and P.G Departments. The Maharashtra Culture was constituted by the B.Sc. (Basic Science) Students, The Kashmiri Culture by the B.Sc. (Life Sciences) Students, The B.A. Students represented the Assami Culture, The M.A.(English) Students typified the Karnataka Culture, The M.Sc.(Chemistry) Students depicted the Gujarathi Culture and the M.Sc.(Physics) personified the Bengali Culture. The Students with their act of sembling epitomized the concept of India as the symbol of Unity in Diversity.

Students Representing West Bengal State

The B.Sc.(Basic Sciences'), Sudha,Uma,Akash and team won the first Prize . The second Prize was won by the B.Sc. (Life Science) team with Jammu and Kashmir Representation and the Third Prize was won by the B.A team with Assam representation .The Judges, Mrs.Supriya Kalasgond ,the Craft Artist and Mrs.Rupali Sorvode,The graphic Designer from Kolhapur were very much impressed with the creativity of the Students.They opined that such Programmes are very much required to make the students understand the rich Indian culture and ethical values in their lives.

This Event to celebrate this year's theme of the International Women's Day "#EachforEqual" was hence organised with both the Boys and Girl students taking each other towards the accomplishment of the task.
