DEPARTMENT OF M.A.(ENGLISH)

TOUR REPORT

The Department of P.G. Studies in English had organised a Study Tour to Madikeri, Nisargha Dhama, Tala Kaveri, Kushal Nagar, Adichinanageri Matha and Sravanabelagola for four Days from 22/05/2018 to 26/05/2018.

The Faculty and Students of the Department began their journey on 22/05/2018 at 11.45pm. The next day morning visited the Fort of Chitradurga and then went to Adichinanageri Matha then visited the famous Statue of Gomateshwara at Shravanabelagola and went to Kushal Nagar for stay. The next morning visited the famous Buddhist Monastery at Kushal Nagar and visited the Nature Camp and stayed at Madikeri. Next day morning visited the famous Abhey Water Falls then visited Tala Kaveri and the Elephant Camp on the Banks of river Kaveri and went for stay to Kukke Subhramanya. The next day morning went to Udapi Krishna Temple, Malpe Beach and Muradeshwar and early next day morning came back to Vijayapur on 26/05/2018.

All the Faculty and Students had Hands on experience of being close to Nature and its elements. The visit to the Temples enlisted the spiritual aspect. The Sun set at the famous Sun set point in Madikeri and the View Point at Tala Kaveri made all to get the imagination of the famous Poet Kuvempu in his world famous Poems for which even the great English Poet William Wordsworth had appreciated the intensity of expression and the sublimity of the Tone and use of words of the Poet.

The message of the height of the Statue of Gomateshwar, the Elephant Camp or the Buddhist Monastery and the waves of the sea touching the shores of Malpe Beach at Udapi and also at Muradeshwar all together combine to regulate the Nature message to Man of its superiority but yet being humble.
