The main objective of the Seminar was to familiarize participants with the emerging ideas and trends on how to develop personality in the 21st century contexts. The programme also aimed to teach participants to work with various professionals, people and groups to understand the meaning of life and work in the present context; to enhance their communication skills and interpersonal skills in order to function in professional and social settings effectively; to enrich the academic language skills for academic; to understand effective planning, time management and implementation for setting goals and achieving both personal and professional goals; to learn to evaluate oneself (self-appraisal and introspection) for further growth, personally and professionally.

Human personality influences and impacts the functioning of an individual and organizations. The fact that humans are social is determined by individual as well as collective contexts. Understanding one's own personality and nurturing it well enables one to be a fine human being and an effective professional. Humans need to learn how to cope with the problems and face the hardships while shaping our careers to become professionals and contributing citizens.
