REPORT

25 chemistry experiments in 15 minutes

Andrew Szydlo brings chemistry to life with his spectacular demonstrations, public lectures and TV appearances. In this TEDx talk, Andrew aims to promote chemistry as the science of remarkable changes, which are often overlooked yet so important in our everyday life.

Chemistry is central to everything you do in your life. So much so, that we take it for granted and often forget about it. This talk, through a series of short demonstrations aims to convey the major themes that underpin the wonder of chemistry.

He is highly talented and demonstrates 15 amazing experiments which include coefficient of expansion using sprite bottles and change of color of various liquids.

Students explored the amazing chemistry experiments and were surprised to see colorful reactions. Science is a visual treat and students were so moved to see the endless possibilities.

Chemistry is used in a lot of things in modern day. Chemistry is used to make medicine and drugs and it is used to make food that we consume each day. Using chemistry these days is vital because drugs are used to cure people and the food we eat should be germ free. Also Chemistry is used for advancement of technology. Chemistry can be used in physics while our own body is made up of a lot of elements which has to deal with chemistry.
