A Report

Capt. Anny Divya the World's Youngest Woman Captain to command Boeing 777 Aircraft. She flies for her living. She said "Dare to Dream", I dreamt of unknown, something I didn't even see, I flied to unknown space and it expanded my wings. She said how she had suffered from social and language barriers".

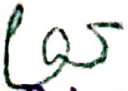

She said that once her teacher asked her 'where you want to be?' and her reply was, 'I want to be where I want to be but I don't know how'. Then her teacher asked her to make a list of ten things what she wants to be and in the top of that list she mentioned to be A Piolet. Now in her career not only she has achieved the first one but also the other Nine dreams too. She suggested to come out of our comfort zone and we should not be afraid of being judged.

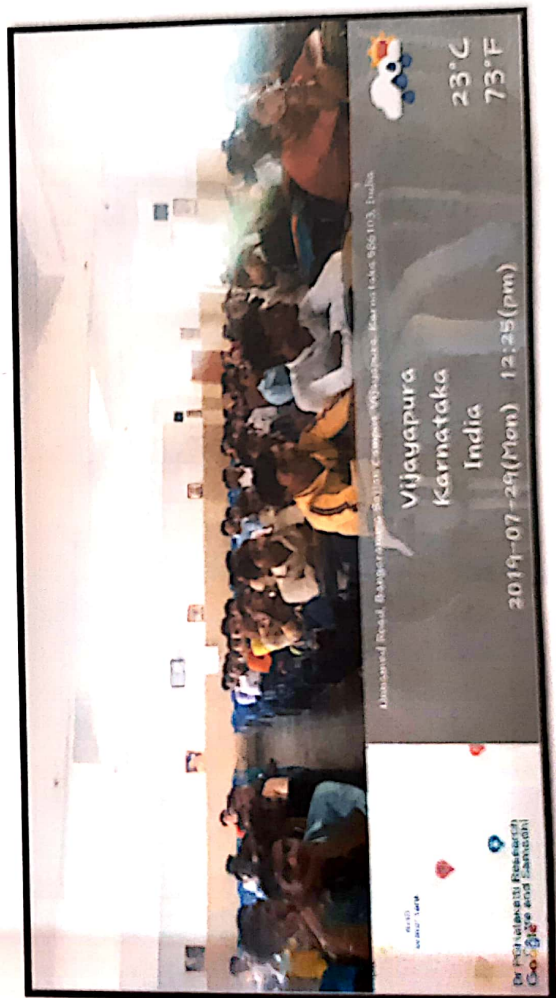

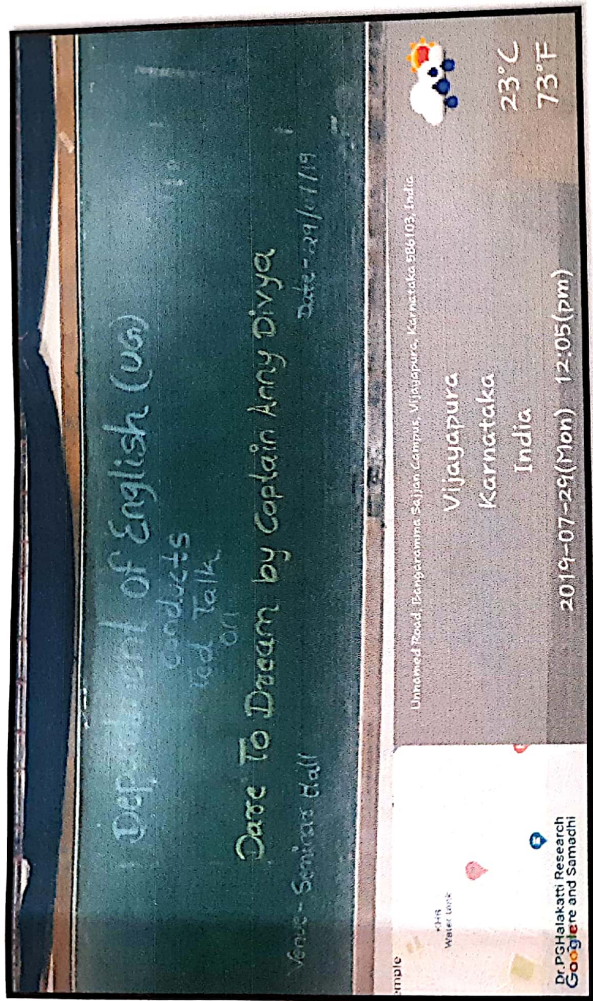

At her 17, she joined The Flying Academy. While travelling across the world she faced problems such as language barriers, cultural difference, financial burden and lack of exposure but she continued her journey. Further she said, "instead of escaping from the problem we should work hard to find the solution". Then only we can fly our wings high.

Learning never ends, she defines its ok not to know but its not ok not to learn. She passed a message to have faith in your dream, stay focused and keep going.

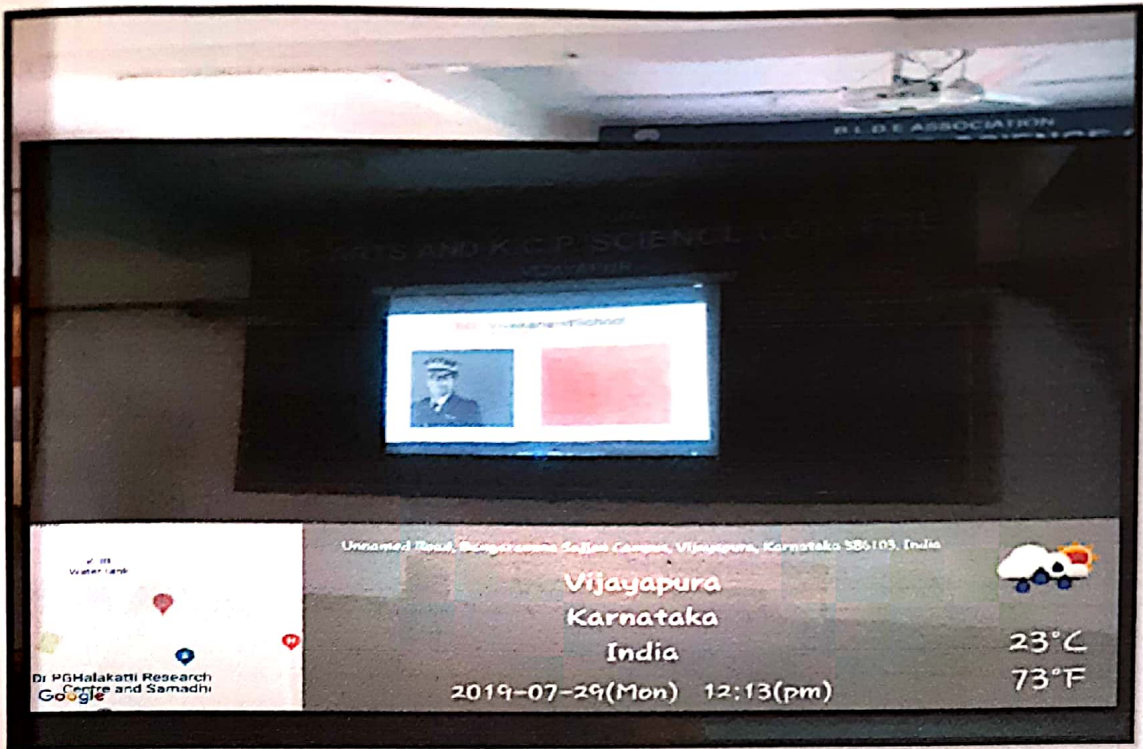

Dare to Dream
Believe in it and Live it.
