A Report

The Department of English held a Tedtalks on 5th February, 2020 at 12 to 1p.m on "Rising When You Fall" by Neha Aggarwal Sharma, an Indian tennis player. She is the only woman from India to have participated in the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing. In the present Tedtalks, she recites her inspirational journey from being a common aspiring sportswoman to participating in astounding International prestigious Olympics game. She further adds the griming expectation from the fellow citizens when you once shot the star. Facing the various hurdles that the life creates for you, you tend to face them all with grit and valour in bid to achieve the glorious victory is the message that we received from her motivational speech. The students felt the unspoken inspiration from her speech. The Head of Department of English Prof. S.S.Patil, Prof. Amin Lain, Prof. Bilal Phaniband, Prof. Ikbal Mamdapur and the stuents of English were present during the screening of Tedtalk.
