A Report on TED TALK

The Department of English held TED TALK on 20th August 2018 at 12:05 pm for B.A I/III/V semester students on the topic '7 Ways to Make a Conversation with Anyone' by Malavika Vardhan. In her talk she said that talking to strangers is a challenging one and the students need to learn this society norm. She said that we can open our talk with a strangers and greet them with a smile on a face by saying 'Hello'/ 'Hi'. Secondly, she advises the speaker to be precise in enquiring relevant questions to the strangers. Thirdly we need to elicit their tastes, interests, hobbies in a friendly way. Fourthly she said that we need to appreciate their strength and also complement it.

Further she said that the speaker should give a chance to the stranger to express his opinion and make him to share his views. In addition Malavika expressed that the speaker should be a good listener and have patience to what the stranger conveys. In addition a speaker must also have a presence of mind. Lastly she said that the speaker should remember the persons background, his likes, dislikes and etc... she concluded her talk that conversation is like building blocks, its like a reading book.

The students shared their views on the talk and written feedback was collected from the students. More than 100 students were present on the occasion.
