PICK AND SPEAK

REPORT

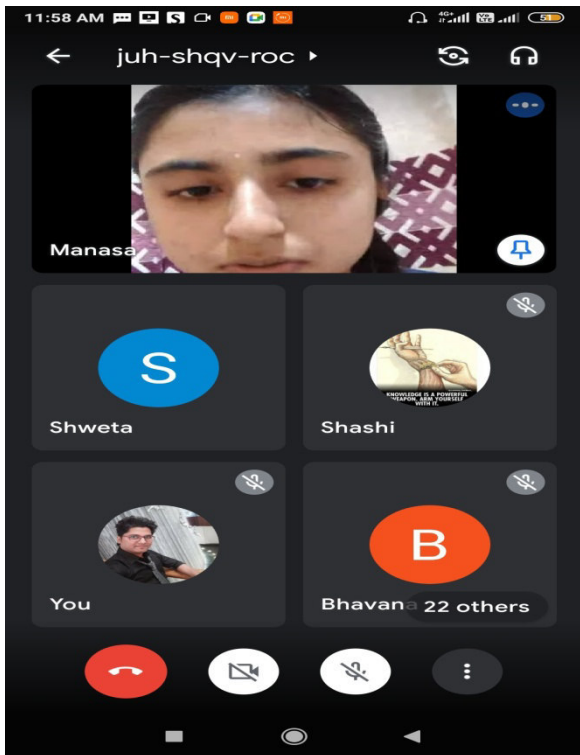

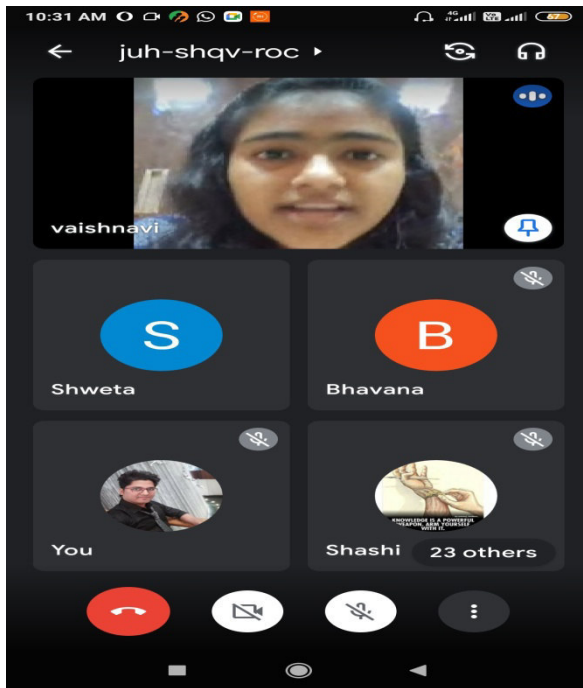

Department of botany under eco-club organized pick and speak activity on 22-06-2021 by online mode through google meet, for all the three semester students during second lockdown period. The purposes of this activity is to improve speaking skills, critical thinking and promote learning skills. In the activity 30 students were enrolled their names including all semesters. The students were divided into three groups with team captains Abhishek pujari, Abhishek Shekdar and Shashikumar. Each of them was given a task as by picking the topic and speak on them in the form of online on topic from their respective syllabus. Points of the topics were recorded and analysed. The result showed that online activity were in the form of time flexibility, learning autonomy, and help to create interest over botany subject. In the activity all participants actively participated. The team shashikumar won the first prize.
