Report of the Stitching Course

The Women Empowerment Cell arranged for a one and a half Month Stitching Course in the College for the Lady Faculty and Girl Students from 01/03/2019 to 17/04/2019.

The Resource Person, Mrs. Vidya Biradar, a design analyst, involved the students of this Course with the teaching of both the Theoretical and Practical part separately.

This Course covered the syllabus of the basics in the Stitching of the Clothes. Then later the Stitching of Sari Blouses was taught as the second stage. The third stage of the Course involved the Students in learning the stitching of the Dresses (Top and the Pants).

The theoretical sketching of the diagrams was first taught and then later the practical part, the students were actually involved in the stitching of the clothes on the sewing machines. The College has one sewing machine and few more sewing machines were hired from outside on rental basis.

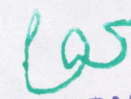

The learning of the sewing of the clothes and making patterns and different designs of it was a part of this Stitching Course. The Empowerment of the Woman by making her an entrepreneur was the chief motive to organize this Course by the Cell.

The participants of this Course, five members are actively involved in the stitching of the Sari Blouses wherein they thinking of choosing it as the Profession.
