BRIDGE COURSE 2021-2022
REPORT

The department of English introduced the bridge course on English Literature and Language for the first year BA students in the academic year 2021-2022. This course was designed with purpose of introducing the History of English Literature and form and Genres of literature for DSC and language activity for honors.

This course was taken over a period of one week with three lectures of one hour each. Professor Prabhavati Talawar interacted with students over several of the aspects outlined above. At the end of the course hearting for the department to have achieved the following outcomes with a majority of the students.

- Could identify forms and identify forms and genres of literary texts without assistance from the teacher.
- Equip the students for the detailed study of literature.
- Students became familiar with different genres.
- Wrote some essays and short stories in grammatically correct sentence.
